Report of G. T. Purdy,

Nov. 10, 1926.

Mr. John Thomas, Janitor at Rutgers College.

I interviewed Mr. Thomas again this day in regards to the positive date that he saw Peter Tumulty and the two strangers in the saloon at No. 106 Somerset Street. Mr. Thomas states that he is positive that it was two days before the murders, Tuesday, Sept. 12, 1922. He remembers the day very well, as it was a warm day and he was out in front of the college cutting grass, and stepped over to the saloon to have a glass of beer and a cigar. After the bodies were found and news about the murders published, he then spoke to his wife about seeing Peter Tumulty in the saloon with the two men two days before the date that the murders were committed.

Respectfully submitted,
